New Food Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt accepted today the resignation of Chester C. Davis as war food administrator and appointed Marvin Jones as his successor.

Demands Lacombe Prove Charges

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister King said in the Commons this afternoon that Liguori Lacombe, Cdn., Laval-Two Mountains, should be called upon to prove his charge last Friday that there are three "new millionaire ministers" who made their money since the outbreak of war, and to resign his seat if he fails to prove the charge.

More Miners Work

PITTSBURGH (AP)—More men trooped back to the mines in the Appalachian coal region today, but the task of restoring full shifts in some sections, especially the great Pennsylvania producing fields, this afternoon still had the aspect of a slow process.

Germans Say Allies Coming Saturday

LONDON (CP)—Reuters tonight said German reports reaching Stockholm asserted an Anglo-American invasion would start not later than this coming Saturday.

There were no details on how this date was arrived at nor at what point or points the blow was expected.

The Axis in the past, however, has issued statements on dates when they expected Allied action in the hope of eliciting information.

Army Show Parade Set for Noon Tuesday

Headed by a band, the 128 uniformed girls and men who make up Canada's Army Show will start their parade at 12 noon Tuesday from Douglas and Broughton Streets.

The parade will march north to the City Hall, where Mayor McGavin and members of the City Council will stage the official reception.

The army stage stars will arrive in Victoria by special boat this evening and go at once to their billets, the women to the Cwac's quarters at Work Point and the men to barracks at Work Point and at the Willows. All members of the show while on tour live under army routine and have only regular army rations. They have their own training instructors and while here will continue the daily army instruction and drill.

Ruhr 'Saturated'

Germany's Railways Feel Next Air Blow

LONDON (CP)—A new series of air blows at Germany's strained railway system, already under heavy hammering from R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. "train-busters," was forecast by military observers today as a possible follow-up to the terrific battering of the industrial Ruhr in the Allies' campaign of strategic bombing to sap the Nazis' strength.

This phase of the air war was suggested even as Reichsmarshal Goering was reported being fured into risking the German air force reserves he had been carefully husbanding in a desperate attempt to ward off a knockout blow to the Ruhr.

Germans Now Use Lower Grade Steel

Capt. Harold Balfour, Britain's air under-secretary, said today the following were the goals of the Ruhr raids, which have laid waste vast areas of the Great German industrial sections:

1. "To bomb Ruhr coal production and stop it."
2. "To bomb steel works."
3. "To bomb factories making that steel into armament."

He added: "The fact that German industries have been ordered to use a lower grade of steel is definite proof that the R.A.F.'s bombing has the desired effect."

Faced with being forced to make a quick shift of troops over long distances that separate

Whirlaway Retires

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Whirlaway, all-time champion money-winning thoroughbred, has been retired from racing and will be shipped from Chicago to Calumet Farm near here within the next two weeks, his owner, Warren Wright, announced today, because he has not fully recovered from an injury received at New Orleans last winter.

Cartel Indicted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Department of Justice announced today that three American chemical companies had been charged in a federal grand jury indictment with creation of a world-wide cartel in conspiracy with British, German, Italian, Japanese and other foreign interests.

Tom Clark, assistant attorney-general in charge of the anti-trust division of the Justice Department, said the cartel was in titanium compounds used in the production of strategic war materials.

Named as defendants are the National Lead Company and Fletcher W. Rockwell, its president and Claude F. Garesche, general manager of the titanium division; E. I. duPont de Nemours and Company and Carl H. Rupert, general manager of the Krebs pigment division; Titan Company Inc., subsidiary of National Lead Company, and Gustav Jensen, vice-president of Titan Company Inc.

U.S. Battleships In Mediterranean

LONDON (CP)—A Reuters news agency report from Stockholm said today that United States battleships have reached the Mediterranean and joined the British battle fleet.

The report, quoting the Scandinavian Telegram Bureau, came a day after the Italian fleet was reported to have sailed into the open sea—perhaps for a fight, or perhaps for a safer refuge from Allied planes bombing the mainland from two sides. The Italian fleet sailing was reported also by Reuters, quoting an Algiers radio report credited to the Spanish newspaper Arriba.

Neither story had any official confirmation.

Boisson Resigns In West Africa

LONDON (CP)—Pierre Boisson has resigned as Governor-General of French West Africa and the French Committee of National Liberation has accepted his resignation, Reuters news agency reported today from Algiers.

The report added that Boisson had been asked to remain in office until his successor could be appointed.

Boisson's territory includes the strategic naval and air base of Dakar, against which the Fighting French of Gen. Charles de Gaulle made an abortive attack earlier in the war.

Soon after the Allied occupation of north Africa, Boisson joined the French forces headed by Admiral Jean Darlan, assassinated predecessor of Gen. Henri Giraud. With his territory he delivered a considerable French flotilla, including the battleship Richelieu, last reported in a United States east coast port undergoing repairs.

Russians Capture Finnish Position; Take Big Air Toll

LONDON (CP)—Red Army troops captured a Finnish strong point in hand-to-hand combat, in a brief flare-up on the Karelian Isthmus Sunday night, the Russian noon communique broadcast by the Moscow radio, and recorded by the Soviet monitor here announced today.

Elsewhere on the Russian front it was quiet, with intermittent exchanges of artillery fire resulting in the destruction of German machine gun nests and blockhouses. Soviet airmen shot down three planes, the war bulletin said.

The Russian midnight communique Sunday night reported that in the seven days ended June 26, Red Army fliers and anti-aircraft batteries destroyed 211 Nazi planes, as compared with a loss of 74 for the Russians. The communique explained these figures were exclusive of "a large number of planes . . . destroyed or damaged in our raids on enemy airdromes."

Following up a Red Air Force bombing of the railway junction at Orel and nearby airdromes, Russian troops probed into advanced German lines south of Orel in a reconnaissance in force, and then their artillery smashed German gun emplacements in the sector, the Soviet midnight communique declared.

The communique also said Red Army units had captured a populated place on the Kalinin front, and repulsed six German counter-attacks.

Tops All Objectives

Victory Loan Total Now $1,308,985,000

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Ilsley announced in the Commons this afternoon that total sales in the Fourth Victory Loan campaign this spring amounted to $1,308,985,000, representing 2,669,111 subscriptions.

The objective of the three-week drive was $1,100,000,000, and this objective was split—$500,000,000 for individuals covered by the general canvass and payroll canvass, and $600,000,000 for large investors, mostly business firms and corporations, covered by the special names canvass. Each of these objectives was exceeded.

"The Fourth Victory Loan was the largest public bond issue in the history of Canada," said the minister.

"The outstanding feature of the loan was the tremendous increase in the number and amount of sales to individuals in the general and payroll canvasses."

The record of voluntary loan purchases was evidence of Canadians' united determination to win their war and a declaration of faith in the future of Canada, he said.

The "impressive records" of sales in Victory Loans had reflected the value of work done by the National War Finance Committee and the tens of thousands of citizens associated with it.

Subscribers' Duty To Hold Bonds

"When a person buys a Victory bond that person is making it possible for Canada to get the men and materials needed for war use, and, in addition, is helping to fight the home front battle against inflation."

"When people sell their bonds they are withdrawing this help . . ."

"Sales of bonds to get dollars to buy things that are not essential."

Not Contesting By-Elections

By NORMAN MACLEOD
OTTAWA — The Progressive Conservative Party is unlikely to contest any one of the four federal by-elections scheduled for Aug. 9, informed sources here revealed today.

Instead, the newly-reorganized official opposition party is said to have determined to reserve its fighting strength for a by-election which it will itself provoke some time this autumn, when it will seek to return its national chief, Hon. John Bracken, to a seat in Parliament.

The constituency which the Progressive Conservatives plan to open in order that Leader Bracken may have his baptism of federal fire will be Souris in

Athens Airports Heavily Blasted; Hangars Burned

By GEORGE TUCKER

CAIRO (AP)—United States air force heavy bombers shattered Axis hangars, pitted runways and started fires at two airdromes near Athens Sunday in a powerful follow-up to the Thursday raid at Salonika, which opened the trans-Mediterranean aerial offensive against German and Italian holdings in the Balkans, it was announced today.

High explosives were loosed effectively at the air fields of both Eleusis, 10 miles west of Athens, and Hassani, southwest of the capital, and Allied leaflets were showered over the entire area.

The leaflets carried a tribute from President Roosevelt to the fighting courage and spirit of the Greek people and expressed hope that the day of their deliverance was not too far away.

It also told the Greeks of the presentation of an anti-submarine patrol ship, the PC-622, to the Greek government under lease-lend arrangements June 10.

Raids Completed Without Loss of Plane

Despite savage efforts by defence forces to break up the raids, the four-engined bombers executed their missions and returned without a loss.

"At both targets our aircraft were attacked by large formations of enemy fighters and fighter-bombers, the latter making unsuccessful attempts at aerial bombing," said the air force communique, "seven enemy aircraft were destroyed, with eight others listed as probably destroyed."

Three large hangars were hit and set afire at Eleusis. Other bombs burst on the runways and near administrative buildings and "the whole surface of the airdrome appeared to be covered with bursts," the bulletin said.

At Hassani, the story was the same. Hangars were left burning and the entire field and western dispersal area were covered with bursts. Five grounded planes were observed in flames. Other fires broke out northwest of the hangars in the western dispersal area, the bulletin added.

The new attacks on Greece, a potential invasion route for Allied forces deployed in the Mediterranean basin, followed a massive 50-bomber raid Thursday on the Sades airdrome at Salonika, second Greek port.

10 Per Cent Boost In Food Supplies For This District

Ten per cent increase in food supplies and other quota goods for civilians in the Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster areas has been provided for by rationing authorities, the Prices Board announced today.

It will be some time, however, before the increase becomes effective in local stores as extra stocks must be built up right back to the primary producer, a board spokesman explained.

Evidence of vast population increases in the north is a 100 per cent increase for all communities on the Canadian National line from the Alberta boundary to Prince Rupert.

Dawson Creek has been given a 1,000 per cent increase over its quota, based on 1941 sales, while Peace River, Alta., has been allowed 300 per cent.

The larger quotas, calculated from ration book distribution, will be in addition to the existing allotments of 60 per cent of 1941 business.

2 Airmen Killed

BELLEVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Two airmen from the R.A.F. Bombing and Gunnery School at Pictou, Ont., were killed today when their plane crashed into Lake Ontario at Waupoos, about 50 miles southeast of here. One body has been recovered.

Rheumatic Pains-- BACKACHE

Now as never before men and women must take themselves fit and ready for work. So when you've tried everything you can think of and nothing seems to even relieve the pain and soreness, don't give up hope, but go to any good druggist and get a bottle of Allertu. Take as directed and in about 24 hours you should see a real improvement. You needn't be afraid of Allertu containing doses of any kind—it doesn't; such things are only makeshifts and can at best give only partial relief.

Allertu acts 3 ways: 1) to relieve the pain; 2) to correct the bowels; 3) as a gentle diuretic to the kidneys, flushing out excess acids. The very first bottle is guaranteed to show results and justify your confidence. If for any reason you are dissatisfied, take back the empty bottle and get your money back.

Harbor at Naples Heavily Pounded; 6 Axis Planes Hit

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA (AP) — R.A.F. Wellington bombers of the north African air forces dropped bombs in the dock area and on industrial plants of Naples in an attack Saturday night. Allied headquarters announced today.

The Italian Sunday communique previously had disclosed that the Naples area had been the objective of a Saturday night raid, and claimed only slight damage had been done.

The Allied communique today did not indicate the size of the attacking force that struck the strategic west coast Italian port or the amount of damage.

Six Axis planes, attacking Allied shipping Saturday, were shot down by coastal air force planes and two more were brought down by naval gunfire, it was announced.

Two Allied aircraft were said to be missing from all of the operations.

ADMIT CASUALTIES

(The Italian Sunday communique, broadcast from Rome and recorded by the Associated Press, said Allied planes attacked Gerbini, Catania province, Sunday and caused some civilian casualties. Reggio Calabria and several other smaller localities on the toe of the Italian boot were reported raided Sunday night.

The Paris radio, meantime, in a broadcast recorded by Reuters, quoted the Madrid newspaper Arriba as saying the Italian fleet had left its bases to carry out an offensive operation.

(The Paris radio declared today that unarmed German landing craft had passed through the Bosphorus from the Black Sea, en route to the Aegean.

DEFENSIVE MOVE

(The Paris broadcast, recorded by the Associated Press, said "this obviously shows the German high command is taking some precautionary measures in the Greek islands against any Allied move in that sector."

A Reuters dispatch from Ankara also reported the movement, stating four German invasion barges passed through the Turkish-controlled strait, as permitted by international convention.

(It also was reported from the invasion zone that the continued Allied pounding of Sicily from the air has created an acute water shortage and that the island's 4,000,000 inhabitants would be put on water rations. The reports were carried in dispatches to the London Daily Mail from Madrid.)

Sympathy Strike Closes 5 Mines

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP) — Miners of five Glace Bay collieries went on strike here today as they carried through a vote decision taken Sunday night to halt production for one day in sympathy for 12 waitresses who have been on strike from a cafe here for four weeks.

A sixth mine of the area—No. 4 Caledonia—however, failed to heed the call for the one-day walkout and continued to operate as usual this morning as its 800 workers turned up at their jobs. The mines out on strike are Nos. 1B, 2, 20, 11 and 24.

A number of miners turned up at the five striking mines this morning, but in numbers far below the number required to operate any of the pits. The men returned home. Nearly 4,000 miners are affected.

The mass meeting of miners here Sunday night not only decided to stage today's walkout, but recommended that if the cafe dispute is not settled this week, the mines should be tied up for two days next week, three days the following week if there is still no settlement, and so forth.

Canadian Scientist Dr. W. E. Saunders Dies

Member of a family of scientists, Dr. Saunders was probably best known for his work in the field of ornithology.

He was the oldest son of Dr. William Saunders, who began experiments with wheat which later led to the development by one member of the family—Sir Charles Saunders—of Marquis wheat.

4 Children Killed As Plane Explodes

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Four children died today from injuries they received when a P-38 army pursuit plane crashed and exploded on the beach before the eyes of 20,000 bathers, Sunday.

Sixteen other persons suffered injuries and burns as the plane rocketed down in a circular dive from an altitude of 8,000 feet, and scattered wreckage and flaming gasoline over a wide area.

The pilot parachuted to safety, but burned so seriously they succumbed were Mary Silva, 12, her sister Frances, 4, Faith Barrega, 8, and her sister, Rosalvo, 5.

The plane was in a formation that had been flying over the beach picnic area. FO. G. R. Fair was at the controls, March Field authorities disclosed. As the ship burst into flames more than a mile above the crowd, Fair was forced to bail out.

Three of the injured required hospitalization. The wreck tied up traffic on the coast highway for an hour.

Big U.S. Bombers In Daylight Raid

LONDON (CP) — A large force of U.S. heavy bombers attacked targets in France late today.

The first announcement from headquarters of the European theatre of operations of the U.S. army did not specify targets, and gave no details.

$100,000 Fire In Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — A spectacular three-alarm fire broke out on the upper floors of a large storage building in the city's warehouse district in downtown Vancouver Sunday, causing losses estimated at $100,000.

Smoke curled high into the air, clouding the downtown section and attracting at least 10,000 persons to the scene. The fire was under control in about an hour.

The building housed tile, beaverboard, glass, concrete-hardners and other builder's supplies. An official of the company said the loss was covered by insurance.

Several firemen had narrow escapes from death or injury soon after the outbreak of the fire when pieces of the building crashed from the top floor.

U.S. to Compromise On Proposed Boost Of Dependents' Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. War Department is expected soon to submit to Congress a compromise proposal for increasing the allowances for dependents of men in the armed forces and proponents predicted it would receive speedy approval.

A Senate military affairs subcommittee called Brig.-Gen. M. G. White before it in a closed session today as it began hearings on a bill by Senator Henry Lodge (Rep., Mass.), to increase the present dependency allowance by 15 per cent to meet rising living costs.

At the same time Chairman Edwin Johnson (Dem., Colo.), made public a War Department report urging the committee to delay action on the measure until it could present an analysis of the need for increases.

In this report, War Secretary Henry Stimson said the War Department "is satisfied that facts of common knowledge with respect to present day living costs indicate there is justification for giving favorable consideration to some increases for certain categories of dependents."

CALL UP FATHERS

"This is particularly the case as regards those dependents who will come into the picture if Selective Service begins inducting substantial numbers of married men with children," Stimson wrote.

Stimson pointed out the Lodge bill would make a blanket increase of 15 per cent in the government's contribution for all categories of dependents. A married man in the lower ranks of the army or navy now contributes $22 and the government $28 to provide $50 monthly for his wife. The government pays $12 additional for one child and $10 more for each additional child.

(In Canada the wife of a man in the lower ranks of the three services receives $59.40 monthly through contributions from the serviceman and the government. The government pays and additional $13.20 for the first child, $12 for the second child, $10 for the third, and $8 for each additional child.)

Stimson suggested it might be better to provide for an increase both in the amount of soldiers' and the government's contributions.

More Planes Ready To Attack Germany

LONDON (CP) — Maj. Gen. Henry F. Miller, head of the U.S. Army's 8th Air Force service command, declared today that "we are definitely set for a great new flow of planes to this theatre for the increased offensive against Germany."

"We have plenty of bombs, including 4,000-pounders," Gen. Miller said at a press conference after he had bestowed awards for valor on four officers and one enlisted man.

"Our supplies are more than adequate, and we are ready to meet demands for a set-up by 45 per cent of the bomb load on Germany if called for."

This was a reference to reports from Washington that the Allies were planning a 45 per cent increase in the tonnage for the offensive by the end of July.

Expert On Blood Dies at 75 Years

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Karl Landsteiner, 75, noted medical research expert whose discovery of human blood groups won him the Nobel Prize in 1930, died Saturday.

The Vienna-born scientist was a member emeritus of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, which he served actively from 1922 to 1939.

Through his research and the discovery and classification of human blood into four main groups, the lives of scores of thousands of wounded or anemic persons throughout the world were saved by the use of blood transfusions.

His blood classifications were the result of 30 years of laboratory work. Because he was able to type the blood of individuals, transfusions were made possible.

2 Island Women Become Skippers Of Ocean Vessels

By STANLEY MANTROP

MONTREAL (CP) — It's a long, tough grind from seaman to skipper, but four Canadian women have bridged the gap and three of them now are in complete charge of seagoing or lake freighters.

Two, Capt. Myrtle Kool of Alma, N.B., and Chief Mate Dorothy Gloria Cullinan of Nanaimo, B.C., have not only obtained their master's certificates, but also have earned home-trade licenses, a higher qualification denoting they have spent required time in off-coast sailing.

Chief Mate Cullinan is on a cargo ship on the west coast and Capt. Kool is in command of an east coast cargo ship.

SALVAGE WORK

A veteran of the Great Lakes is Capt. Ollie Johnston of Kingston, Ont., a skipper of the salvage tug Salvage Prince. Capt. Johnston not only navigates the sturdy tugboat, but is in complete charge of salvage jobs when lakers run into difficulties, one of the hardest of tugboat jobs.

Capt. Johnston has been a navigator for a number of years and has done all her sailing for the Pyke Towing and Salvage Co. of Kingston. She got her captain's license in Montreal in 1938.

Another woman who spins a mean starboard helm is Capt. Dorothy Clarice Blackmore of Port Alberni, B.C., veteran of Pacific coast shipping. Capt. Blackmore is now skipper of a west coast tugboat—and doing a mighty fine job of it, according to marine men. She obtained her license in 1937.

It takes months of tough plugging and hard work to reach the top in the steamship game these days, but Canadian women are showing it can be done—with a little aid from the male crewmen—and done successfully.

Fritz Schmidt Met 'Fatal Accident'

LONDON (CP) — An announcement Sunday night by the Berlin radio that Fritz Schmidt, regional chief of the National Socialist Party and commissar-general of occupied Netherlands territories, had "met with a fatal accident" while on an official tour through France aroused keen speculation.

here today on the circumstances surrounding his death.

News of Schmidt's death came soon after a report broadcast by the BBC that German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels had canceled a visit to Alsace because of rumors of an assassination plot. The report said anti-Axis patriots had also planned to kill Robert Wagner, Nazi governor of Alsace, at the same time.

Allied Planes Blast Nazi Convoy Off Dutch Coast

Mosquitoes Blow Up French Rail Yards

By E. C. DANIEL

LONDON (AP)—R.A.F. Typhoons and Hurricanes sank two enemy ships early today, drove another blazing on a beach and brought a third to a standstill after a night in which R.A.F. Mosquito squadrons winged deep into France to hammer airports and railways in the mounting Allied aerial offensive.

The latest engagement was reported by the Air Ministry to have taken place off the coast of Holland, where swift R.A.F. fighters found five enemy coastal vessels sailing in a line.

These vessels were attacked in waves and the final wave of fliers also attacked ships, believed to be tugs, trying to aid the convoy. One R.A.F. plane was lost, the Air Ministry announced, in contrast to the German high command's claim that nine were shot down. The Germans also asserted that the convoy suffered only minor damage.

Hurting through intense anti-aircraft fire, fighters closed in to 500 or 600 yards with guns blazing in the initial attack on the convoy. An explosion and yellow flames suggesting an ammunition fire burst out of one 800-ton ship, which was beached, the Air Ministry said.

SINKS IN 10 MINUTES

One pilot saw a 600-ton ship sink within 10 minutes. When the second wave of planes came over, another 600-ton ship had disappeared.

Other Typhoon bombers arriving later found two more ships which looked like tugs ploughing to the assistance of the remaining two vessels at a standstill. One of these poured out smoke after hits were registered all over her, it was stated.

In the blows by the Mosquitoes the Air Ministry said two railway yards were hit, locomotives were raked with machine gun fire and E-boats off Cherbourg were straddled with bombs.

There were no indications that British planes were over Germany Sunday night.

It was the first time after seven consecutive nights of attacks against the Ruhr and western Germany that the R.A.F. omitted to strike at war plants in Germany proper.

It was the ninth night, however, of the current Allied aerial offensive against Hitler's Europe.

RETAIN BOMBS

Bad weather hampered operations Saturday. U.S. bomber crews returned with bomb racks still loaded because they could not spot their objectives through heavy cloud formations and following an air force policy of not bombing indiscriminately over France.

The R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. followed up Saturday night with raids on unspecified targets in western and northwestern Germany, and on objectives in France.

Nazi shipping off the Dutch coast was attacked Sunday by R.C.A.F. planes and three escort vessels and a supply ship were reported probably damaged.

Pilots attacking the convoy had a busy time. Sqdn. Ldr. Geoff Northcott of Minnedosa, Man., damaged an ME-109.

At the same time other R.C.A.F. fighter planes were also busy attacking enemy airfields, laying mines in enemy waters and shooting up trains in enemy-occupied territory.

London had a brief daylight alert early today and one enemy plane was reported destroyed off the southeast coast. In all other Sunday operations five enemy fighter planes were shot down.

Says Nazis Know War Lost; Fight For 'Honorable Peace'

MONTREAL (CP)—Capt. A. A. Masson of Les Fusiliers de Mont Royal, who escaped from a German internment camp after being made a prisoner at Dieppe, says in an interview copyrighted by the Montreal Standard that "if you can believe Dr. Paul Schmidt, Nazi foreign press chief and personal interpreter for Hitler, German leaders know they have lost the war and are now fighting only for what they term an honorable peace."

Capt. Masson, now on active service in Canada, says he talked to Schmidt while in the internment camp and asked him what would happen if Stalingrad held and if Rommel should be chased back in Africa.

He says Schmidt replied: "If that happens we will have lost the war and will continue fighting only so that we might obtain an honorable peace."

He says Schmidt added that the German people would be asked to accept a "honorable peace."

Observers here said more frequent duty assignments would indicate a reduction in reserves of trained German U-boat crewmen.

Usually reliable sources in Norway are credited in Norwegian circles here with relaying the reports that officers and men alike had jointly decided to mutiny.

The report, capping a series of stories of discontent and weakening morale among German forces in Norway, recalled the mutiny of

Today's WAR NEWS Analysis

By MAX HILL

Associated Press War Analyst
An Englishman who is in a position to speak with authority wrote a special article for the Associated Press which was published in the United States and Canada today, and in which he said:

"The people (in Britain) know they can expect no joyride to Berlin or Tokyo."

The author is W. J. Haley, who is joint managing editor of the Manchester Guardian and Evening News, and a director of the Press Association and of Reuters.

Haley has just returned to England from an extensive trip through the south Pacific, and the menace that is Japan no longer is a myth to him.

It was from knowledge and not sentiment that he said: "Churchill spoke for the nation when he pledged that Tokyo must go the way of Berlin and Rome."

It is time, also, that we all awakened to the critical situation in the Pacific. The status of the war in that area can be summarized in a few words, and I only hope the reader of this column won't be too shocked by the definitely ominous factors.

The United States government is aware of the danger, as are the responsible heads of the armed forces. They know of the long and bitter and bloody battles which face the Allies before the Japanese bow in defeat, as they must in the end.

Before the war Japan wasn't strong. But the United States was weak and with typical American confidence looked on Japan as a push-over.

Now Japan is strong. She had a carefully-planned program of attack. In 90 days she seized a rich and vast empire, and since that time she has done nothing but prepare for the inevitable attack from the United Nations to regain it.

Any attempt to wrest this territory from her will be costly in both men and materials. Japan knows that. Now she can sit back and wait for a stalemate. She has accomplished her objectives in this war.

It is being said, with some confidence, that once we have Hitler out of the way we will turn on Japan and—just as easy as blowing out a candle—we will take her into camp.

Nothing fits better into the Japanese program than the policy of devoting most of the United Nations' attention to the Atlantic. It gives Japan time to consolidate and exploit all of her vast Oriental plunder.

sailors of the German High Sea Fleet, in October, 1918, in one of the major steps of the German collapse in the First Great War.

There have been many reports of poor morale and arrests among German army troops in Norway, and recently German marines—the best of Nazi forces in Norway—were pictured as affected. Observers said any extensive mutiny in the ranks of marines would have widespread effects.

No Food Shortage Facing Canada

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Canada faces no food shortage as a result of the loss of manpower in agriculture, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture, said in an address to the Western Ontario Liberal Association.

Mr. Gardiner criticized persons who attempted to create a scare of a food shortage and said the people of Canada would have sufficient food if they did not resort to cellar-hoarding.

"In 1941, when I was in London, I was told that unless more men were made to stay on farms, there would be a food shortage," he said. "Since that time food production has soared, even with less manpower."

No Nationalization Of U.S. Coal Mines, Says Director Ickes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Interior Secretary Harold Ickes told a House of Representatives committee today the United States government has "no desire and no plans for the nationalization" of the coal industry and hopes to return the mines to private ownership "at the earliest possible moment."

He was unable to say, he added, when the return would be possible, but said the government, which took over the mines during the recent strike, would "seize the first opportunity to return them to private ownership."

That opportunity, he added, would come when there is "reasonable assurance" that the miners would work for private owners, or when the workers and the operators signed a contract.

Ickes, whom President Roosevelt placed in charge of government operation of the mines May 1, was called to testify on legislation to extend the life of a coal act designed to stabilize the bituminous coal industry through a system of minimum prices on a regional basis.

He said he favored extension of the act, which will expire Aug. 23 unless continued by Congress. Pending legislation would continue the act until two years after the end of the war.

HAS LITTLE HOPE

"I still hope that government operation will be exceedingly brief," Ickes said, "but I regret to say there is nothing that leads me to believe that will be so."

LACKS AUTHORITY

In calling Ickes, the committee announced it desired specifically to know what the government's plans were with respect to operation of the mines. The Interior Secretary said he has no authority to compel the miners to go back to work.

"My job is to mine coal, and I propose to do it," Ickes said. "It is now touch and go as to whether we will mine enough coal to meet the nation's requirements."

Since April 1, he told the committee, production of coal has been 23,000,000 tons below schedule.

Because of the uncertainty in the minds of the operators, Ickes said, and hesitancy to make capital outlays, there has arisen a "chaotic situation" which will have an adverse result on coal production. Representatives of the government, of labor and of operators, he said, are working on "a sensible, conservative" program to obtain maximum production.

Attack From West To Hasten Victory, Declares Stalin

LONDON (CP)—Premier Stalin thanked President Roosevelt for his "high estimation of the determination and bravery of the Soviet people" in a special message broadcast by the Moscow radio Sunday.

Stalin's statement was in reply to a message which the President sent to the Premier last Tuesday on the second anniversary of the German attack of Russia.

Mr. Roosevelt told the Premier at that time that the same spirit of unity and sacrifice necessary for ultimate victory "will animate us in approaching the challenging tasks of peace."

Stalin's message said: "As the result of two years of struggle on the part of the Soviet Union against Hitlerite Germany and its vassals and of the serious blows inflicted by the Allies on the Italian and German armies in north Africa, conditions have been created for the final defeat of the common enemy."

"Victory will come 'all the sooner—of this I have no doubt—the sooner we strike our joint united blows against the enemy from the east and from the west.'"

Stalin sent a similar message to Gen. Chiang Kai-shek and a joint one to Gen. Charles de Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud.

President Eduard Benes, head of the government of Czechoslovakia in London, was sent a message signed by President Michael Kalinin, and Paul Henri Spaak, Belgian premier, received one signed by Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov.

These acknowledged greetings extended on the second anniversary of the Russo-German war and expressed confidence in final victory over the Axis.

Vancouver Flier Killed in Quebec

MONTREAL (CP)—The R.A.F. transport command Sunday night announced the names of two Canadians killed last week when a training plane crashed near St. Agathe, Que., taking three men to their deaths.

The Canadians were PO. Donald Morrison McLennan of Vancouver, and Sgt. Edward Lloyd Marrett of Merritt, B.C., navigator and wireless operator respectively. Both were members of the R.C.A.F.

Name of the third man killed, a member of the R.A.F. and a resident of England, was not announced.

One Job Now

BY A PROCESS WHICH IS OBVIOUSLY too gradual for those who have to take the chief responsibility for unity of thought and action, former Vichyites associated with the new French Committee for National Liberation are leaving the official scene, some of them without an alternative and others of their own tardily-manifested free will. The latest resignation from all authority is that of M. Pierre Boisson, who had filled the post of Governor-General of French West Africa—the same Boisson who ordered the defence of Dakar against the hapless attempt by British and Free French forces to capture that highly-strategic naval base in September, 1940. The unfortunate ending of that enterprise was a bitter blow to the hopes of General de Gaulle, who naturally recoiled at the idea of Frenchmen fighting Frenchmen; he has kept careful track of the records of all who took their orders from the men of Bordeaux, the men of Vichy and, until comparatively recently, from the arch-traitor Laval.

Regardless of the apparent reconciliation between General Giraud and General de Gaulle on the paramount issue confronting the United Nations, it is patent that the unchallenged love for France which these two men cherish is still marred by a conflict of personalities and the degree and method which shall dominate the operations of the National Liberation Committee as an integrated part of the Allied structure. The leader of the Fighting French has been an imposing symbol of hope and inspiration to his enslaved compatriots ever since France fell more than three years ago. The record of General Giraud is of a different character: on two occasions he has escaped from a German prison to do battle against the traditional enemy of his country. It is a thousand pities, therefore, that the main job of the moment on which they think alike should be hampered by a divergence of view in respect of political method.

There is no reason to believe, however, that compromises which have brought into being the Committee for National Liberation will not be followed by a further application of the principle of give and take. The need of the hour demands it. Both General Giraud and General de Gaulle may yet have to undergo more personal strains, to jettison firmly-rooted ideas, and put up with affronts to their vanity. In all of this the Axis has a specific interest; neither Hitler nor Mussolini cares a rap about how two Frenchmen feel politically; but both dictators are hoping to extract some consolation from a continuation of the controversy even in its present less serious form. One man, however, is determined—and all the Allied world will approve—that this global conflict in the territory under his jurisdiction shall no longer be hindered by personal or political wrangles. That man is General Dwight Eisenhower.

Professional Grumblers

WITH MONOTONOUS REGULARITY, with argument unworthy of the name, critics of the administration at Ottawa tell us that Parliament has lost its authority, that its members are reduced to the status of automatons or rubber stamps, and that practically the whole business of the country is being conducted under the direction of orders-in-council.

If this were the case—and, of course, the charge is ridiculous—how is it that the government, its Minister of Finance and other departmental chiefs have been compelled to watch the consumption of no less than five weeks of time in almost continuous consideration in committee of the $3,890,000,000 war appropriation for the current fiscal year? One might suppose that Mr. Isley would have recruited all the ministerial support available to get the finance bill rushed through on the ground of war's emergency. And the debate may go on for a week or two longer. Nor will anybody complain because of it. This is the democratic way. It is the people's money which is under consideration.

The truth is that some critics and a few newspapers still seem to have the idea that Canada should fight two wars at the same time, one against the Axis and the other against the King government—mainly because the latter is the King government. Strangely enough, by the way, they seem to see red every time anybody, particularly men in other lands who find no difficulty in separating fact from fiction, lauds the Dominion's great contribution to the United Nations' cause.

Certainly criticism is good for any government; none which resents it, provided it is sound and sensible, is worth its salt. But past performances of the professional grumblers and our elite Jeremiahs are not calculated to evoke serious governmental concern over some of the current exhibitions.

Canadians bought more than $77,000,000 worth of war savings certificates during the last 12 months. We can understand Mr. Isley's qualified satisfaction when he says he would feel a great deal more cheerful if during the same period, $24,000,000 worth of certificates had not been redeemed.

Aerial Score Card

SMALL AS THE INTENSELY-INDUSTRIALIZED section of the Ruhr Valley is, approximately 35 miles long and 30 miles wide, it should always be remembered that it used to produce three-fourths of Germany's coal and four-fifths of her coke. And while estimates vary a little, something in the neighborhood of two-thirds of the Reich's raw iron and steel comes from the district through which runs the river that gives the region its name. Apart from the dozen and a half of its largest industrial communities which already are either wholly or substantially out of commission as producers, that long list of cities with populations of more than 100,000 must now be seriously handicapped. Here are 34 of them which understand the meaning of "very heavy" or "saturation" raids by the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F.:

City	Population	City	Population
Berlin	4,325,242	Bochum	303,288
Hamburg	1,682,229	Mannheim	283,901
Munich	825,253	Kiel	272,211
Cologne	768,426	Stettin	268,915
Düsseldorf	658,871	Kassel	272,083
Frankfurt	545,949	Karlsruhe	189,880
Duisenberg	539,869	Augsburg	185,704
Dortmund	537,960	Aachen	182,719
Stuttgart	485,539	Mainz	158,971
Duisburg	431,286	Lübeck	153,430
Nuremberg	428,851	Ludwigshafen	142,417
Königsberg	388,437	Munich	127,118
Bremen	345,113	Rostock	125,399
Gelsenkirchen	312,093	Wormburg	108,417
Krefeld	179,200	Münster	136,805
Wuppertal	404,653	Oberhausen	191,305
Münster	145,746	Hagen	181,879

All of the Ruhr's industries and its communication systems have been subjected to repeated attacks and left devastated by bomb blasts, fire and water, but the battle still continues. It is a struggle that can be likened to the long battle of the Somme in World War I. That was not fought and won in a day. In the Somme conflict of a quarter of a century ago the aim of the Allied armies was to wear down German manpower by attrition. Now, by repeated attacks on the Ruhr, in each of which more than thirty aircraft and six times as many men are lost to offset the damage done, the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. are trying to exhaust German weapon power—with the aid of the Allied naval blockade—so that ultimately large land forces can finish the job, if necessary, without paying too high a price. Even though Britain's losses have been numerically high, replacements have exceeded the losses to the Bomber Command, and the percentage of loss for the numbers of planes involved has shown a tendency to fall.

Japanese Double Talk

WHEN HE LETS HIMSELF GO IN earnest, Premier Hideki Tojo can dispense a "pep talk" to the "sons of heaven" that sounds as convincing as the best the Herr Doktor Goebbels can do. The other day the Nipponese optimist, for example, told the Diet in Tokyo that the Philippines will be given independence "within the year"—double talk which fools nobody outside his own country. The only independence they will get from Japan will be that enjoyed by Manchukuo and the puppet regime in China. The real burden of Tojo's address was his warning to his own people of an impending Anglo-American offensive.

The war situation, Tojo admitted, has become "increasingly tense" and the battles Japan must fight "more grim and terrible." Perhaps this was his veiled acknowledgment of reverses on the Yangtze and at Attu. It is evident, however, that he anticipates still heavier blows to come. As these have been "foreseen," he implies that he knows where they will fall.

Our neighbors in the south have not the same gift of prescience. Nevertheless, there is a growing expectancy in the Republic, too. They know their strength in the Pacific has been mounting steadily on land, sea and in the air. Where it will be applied remains a guess. It can hardly be in Burma now, for the monsoons will not end there until autumn. China has not yet been equipped to do more than defend herself. The reduction of Alaska in the North Pacific would be a strictly American enterprise. But Tojo predicts an Anglo-American offensive. At present the greatest concentration of Anglo-American power is in the Southwest Pacific. There Japan recently suffered her greatest air disaster, sacrificing perhaps 94 planes out of 120 in a futile attack on the Allied island base at Guadalcanal.

Bombs on Rabaul are now dropping in ever-increasing quantities. The enemy fears a major drive in that general direction and speaks of almost "insurmountable obstacles" in the defence of his New Guinea outposts at Lae and Salamaua. Most significance of all, the season of regional good weather is now about due. Whether the blow falls there or elsewhere, the note of anxiety in Tojo's address is unmistakable.

Overcoming Silicosis

AN ANNOUNCEMENT FROM TORONTO says that Doctors Crombie and Blaisdell of the Ontario Institute have completed their work in the Porcupine Clinic for Silicosis Research and have reported favorably on the use of aluminum powder for the treatment and prevention of this insidious malady. Arrangements are under way to make the treatment available to miners of northern Ontario.

Silicosis, a disease caused by inhaling quartz-dust, has claimed an untold number of lives and for years has baffled scientists and research workers. It has become one of the chief industrial hazards in metal mining and as such has been a growing source of concern to Workmen's Compensation Boards. In the face of discouragements, however, Canadian scientists have persisted in their research and now, as the report which comes from the Banting Institute indicates, the conquest of this dread disease seems to be at hand.

SOLENN DUTY

IT FALLS UPON me as a solemn duty again—since no one else will mention it—to point out kindly but firmly that the year has started to wane. The sun is past its zenith and the days are getting shorter. The earth has turned with a yawn upon his axis and every day exposes less of us on the northern hemisphere and more of those on the southern hemisphere to the heat. We are now on the home stretch of 1943.

The only people who will realize this fact are the gardeners. At this time of year the gardener begins to grow a little weary of well-doing. He has slaved all spring. He has worked during the cold of March, hopefully watched the frail, green shoots of April, shivered in our wretched May and seen June behave in a fashion which the Canadian government has officially censored.

Now all the crop is in. Nothing more can be done. Either the garden succeeds with the help of nature now or it fails. The gardener is powerless to increase his store of food by a single ounce. And so anxiously he watches every growth, the swelling of every pod, the sprouting of every lettuce leaf and, like a doctor over a sick child, observes the sickness of every cabbage which has a slug at its roots.

This is the testing time for the new Victory Gardener. Anyone can plant a garden and stand by it in the springtime. Indeed, the Victory Gardeners whose work now swarms over every lawn and boulevard in the town, have wondered up to now why the old-timers always make such a fuss about their great achievements. They have listened to us boast and complain for years and they can see no reason for it.

The thing, they say, is easy. You just put a seed in the ground and it grows. It doesn't require half the brains of golf, which they used to play while we were leaning on a hoe.

COURAGE

NOW THEY ARE beginning to find out the truth. The garden was a joy and inspiration in April and May. Towards the end of June it became a fearful bore and finally a heavy strain on the patience, the nerves and the courage. It takes a very courageous man to carry a garden through July and August. I fear the casualties among the Victory Gardeners will be heavy and the victories not as numerous as the government hopes.

I suppose a cabbage is like a woman, very interesting at first, romantic, mysterious and exciting; but after you have seen it day after day for months, after you have lived with it and learned all its peculiarities and seen that it is only a cabbage after all and not the Venus de Milo, you are inclined to take it as a matter of course. This is fatal to love or cabbages.

Now, therefore, is the time when the Victory Gardener must summon up his spirit of victory. Now is the time when he must throw into the garden that last burst of British energy which will defeat the enemy, the enemy of drought, of weeds, of pests. Most people are not equal to the task. They have plenty of courage in the wild cavalry charge of spring, but they cannot stand the boredom of guard duty, the fearful monotony of the sentry's measured pace.

Let them take courage from the sight of the sun. Observe how it sinks to bed earlier every night and rises later in the morning. Note the increasing span of mercurial night. This is the gardener's reassurance, for it means that the long year has started towards its end, that the worst is over and that there is rest ahead.

Two more months, indeed, a mere 60 days, and we shall be safe, beyond any possibility of defeat. The whole garden will be ripe then, the crop ready for harvest and the gardener can rest. Courage, my friends, the end is in sight!

Tonight, pausing on his hoe in the dusk, the gardener looks about him and realizes how foolish are the current arguments among the intelligentsia concerning the ownership of the land. How vain is the struggle of the rich man who claims to own the land. How futile the frenzy of the socialist who says the state must own the land.

For, of course, as the gardener has just discovered, no one can own the land. The man who has toiled in it all these months and watched its slow, ineluctable processes, knows that he can secure at most only a temporary lease on the land. In so short a time he will be gone and the land will still be here.

He cannot take the land with him. He cannot alter it or remove it or permanently affect it in any way. The land remains, beyond ownership, beyond control. And it is a solemn moment for any gardener when he realizes that long after his name has been forgotten by his most remote descendant, long after he has ceased to be even a memory upon the earth, the earth will be producing as it is tonight, that other hands will till it and other men look about and say they own it.

No one ever owns the land and the gardener, who has learned that, only seeks to tend it, to nourish and protect it for a little while, during his brief tenancy. The lease will soon expire and the gardener must hand back the property in good condition.

Garibaldi In 1860 Won Sicily First

By SCOTT YOUNG

EIGHTY-THREE YEARS ago, Sicily provided the open door to liberation of the Italian people from a tyrannical regime.

Today, with the Allied nations in possession of islands guarding her front doors, Sicily is as important as it was that dawn in 1860 when Garibaldi landed at Marsala under the unintended but powerful protection of two British gunboats. His landing there, May 11, 1860, with only about 400 of his famous red-shirted warriors, started a tidal wave that swept up through Sicily, ousted the Bourbons who ruled over the Kingdom of Naples (all of Italy south of Rome), and united Italy south of first time as a nation.

This port of Marsala, scarcely 100 miles from the Tunisian tip of Africa, is only one of the dozens of spots along the vulnerable backside of Europe where the United Nations could drive a preliminary hatpin into Axis domination of the continent. But wherever that landing is made, it is certain that its resemblance to the Garibaldi expedition will begin and end on only one point, one way, and the other will be, a mission of liberation. Garibaldi got ashore by an almost miraculous stroke of good fortune.

WHERE BRITISH CAME IN

There was almost a comic opera atmosphere about Garibaldi's landing. Even the two British gunboats Intrepid and Argus were there on a strange mission. A group of British wine merchants had been having trouble with the Bourbon soldiery during suppression of the local garibaldini, and Lord Palmerston, the British Prime Minister, had dispatched the ships of war as a hint that Britain resented this maltreatment of its nationals. They have into Marsala harbor early in the morning of May 10, 1860, and that was the scene when Garibaldi arrived.

He didn't quite know what to make out of the presence of the British, but ventured in towards shore to find out. British sailors recognized him, standing in the bows of one of his two little troopships, and cheered. That was all the great Italian general needed. He proceeded to land. It was none too soon, for two Neapolitan warships had noticed all this extra-curricular activity from a few miles out and sailed in to investigate.

Their commander didn't know what to make of the British, either. If he fired at Garibaldi, he would have been manoeuvred out of position should the British attack, and if he fired at the British the consequences would be far more drastic—possibly the starting of a war, for instance. He even thought he might be mistaking Garibaldi's red shirts for British red coats.

EXCHANGE OF SIGNALS

So the Italian commander signalled the British and asked if any of those red-garbed men ashore were British soldiers. The British ships signalled, no, they weren't. That cleared the path for action, but by the time the Neapolitans could get into position for firing ashore, the Garibaldini were out of sight, welcomed by the populace, to find that they had another stroke of luck—the Marsala soldiery had moved to another spot and left the town undefended.

The Neapolitans blasted away, however, just on chance. The official version of the action says the salvo killed one dog, of undecided political leanings. Apparently the Italian Navy's marksmanship was no better than that is now. And after that preliminary stroke of good fortune, Garibaldi and his armies went the rest of the route on their own. So that is the account of the beginning of the first liberation of Italy. It will do until another comes along, which probably makes the story's present value a fleeting one.

THE SPROUT BENDS

From News From Belgium
Another slur has been cast on the modest Brussels sprout, which has not yet recovered from Mrs. Roosevelt's remark, on returning from England, that she hoped she wouldn't have to eat another of the little green vegetable for many a moon. The British Ministry of Agriculture now announces that production of the Brussels sprout in wartime is non-essential and wasteful of land and labor.

This is indeed a rude blow. But, being Belgian and patriotic, the sprout will bend, not break, before the wind and, in a brighter and better world, will once more, defiantly unfurl its crisp green leaves in the market baskets of the world.

Sunday Afternoon Tea Only Peace-Time Vestige

TORONTO—The daily life of civilians in Britain is controlled to an extent that we on this side of the Atlantic could not be induced to accept unless, at one period in this war, we had grasped a government-issue sporting rifle, shotgun, or sword in our hands and awaited the sight of a German uniform on what we considered to be our own particular patch of sidewalk, says C. J. Harris, editor of Liberty Magazine, on his return from a visit to Britain.

In telling the story of Harold Lynch-Watson, a paper manufacturer and a typical London businessman, the magazine states that he now uses straw and sawdust to make his fine papers, and that only he himself is left of his pre-war office staff. The government has the authority to close his plant and combine it with some other firm, or to bring another firm into combination with him on his premises. As a civilian past the age of military service, he is required to join the Home Guards, and to put in 48 hours a month on Home Guard duty. In addition, both he and his wife do regular A.R.P. service. His two daughters have grown through their teens since the start of the war and the oldest was conscripted for the auxiliary services when she turned 19. His youngest worked five hours a day through the blitz months in an emergency civil restaurant feeding neighbors whose homes had been destroyed. She is now, at 17, a full-time probationer in a nursery for war-working mothers.

Because each member of his family has several part-time voluntary war jobs, Sunday afternoon tea in front of their own fireplace is the only vestige left of their peacetime family life.

"However," states the article, "Lynch-Watson is satisfied with the way the war is going. His country's armies have suffered shocking defeats, his neighbors have been killed and maimed in their homes, his family's life has been regimented as that of no Englishman in history. But his armies have survived their beatings, he is confident his neighbors can withstand any blow the enemy can deliver, his family life is as sound and healthy as it ever was. He has settled into the war. For him there is only one way it will end, no matter how long that ending may be delayed."

P.T.A. News

School Sports Held at Duncan

DUNCAN—Duncan Grammar School held its 16th annual sports day and prize-giving on the school grounds last Thursday.

The "Victor Ludorum" and Scasset Cup winner was Cobbin II, who won four events and came second in two, giving him a total of 16 points. Only two points behind was Cobbin III, who came first in the 100-yard dash and in throwing the cricket ball; in the four other events which Cobbin III entered he gained second place. Coope was outstanding in the junior races and amassed 15 points, to win the junior championship cup. Two boys, Kenyon and Poole, tied for second place in trying for the cup awarded to the boy who gains most points in the junior events, each earned eight points. Robertson was third with a total of six.

All races were close and keen. Final race, the Old Boys' relay team versus the School's, was exciting. The school team held a slight lead around the track and finished first. In the junior relay the day boys made use of their position on the inside of the track, and won from the boarders. A special feature of the afternoon was the sprint between the two youngest boys in the school. Kingscote ran hard to win the race. When the sports were over R. E. Honour, the headmaster, welcomed visitors and old boys.

Bruce and the R.A.F. Boys

By A Canadian Who Knows the R.A.F.

Bruce Hutchison's statement of service conditions may give a totally wrong impression to his many readers.

There is no difficulty, curable or otherwise, about air force pay. Royal Air Force airmen serving in Canada, are paid, rank for rank, and trade for trade, at exactly the same rate as their Canadian counterparts. More Canadians serving in the United Kingdom are paid at British rates, the difference between Canadian and British pay being made up by the Canadian government by bank deposits, which cannot be collected until the Canadian returns home. There are, of course, minor differences, amounting to a few cents a day, in what are known in the service as "trade groups" for pay purposes.

Now I would be more specific than was Mr. Hutchison, and say that we need on Vancouver Island all the understanding of the British airmen that we can get. First of all, they are not visitors here, they are members of a service who have been sent here. They do not dislike Canada, although they compare it unfavorably with Britain in many respects. They do not like our liquor laws or our beer. They find it shocking that they are not offered lower rates for public utilities like street cars and buses. They are not given reduced admission to theatres and picture houses. In Britain an airman is granted four free travel warrants a year—in Canada one warrant a year is granted if the airman pays one-sixth of the fare.

When a British airman tells you these things he is not expressing... not expressing a low opinion of Canada, he is expressing a high opinion of his own land, which treats him better.

THEY LIKE US

But aside from all that, there are British airmen that like us, in spite of all our faults. More than 100 airmen on the camp devote a good part of their leisure time to making a detailed study of some particular phase of Canadian life while they are in Canada. At a conservative estimate 150 of them have undertaken correspondence courses from some Canadian institute of learning. A recent survey revealed that approximately 40 per cent of the airmen now here are willing to lengthen their tour of duty in Canada.

Films depicting various Canadian scenes and Canadian industries are viewed each week by large and receptive audiences. British airmen have made lasting friendships with Canadian families; at least 60 R.A.F. airmen and three R.A.F. officers have married Canadian girls while stationed at Patricia Bay. Some, too, have made purchases of land on Vancouver Island, so that when peace comes they may return and make this beautiful spot their home. A number have made inquiry to find out what their prospects will be should they decide to return to other parts of Canada to become Canadian citizens.

OBJECT TO 'ENGLISH'

Mr. Hutchison should not allow himself to be disquieted by such a normal phenomenon as a discontented airman. All democratic services contain discontented personnel—if it were not so our future would look very black indeed, and we could anticipate nothing better than a Nazi-like civilization, where all our young men could see nothing better than a perpetual barracks existence. Praise God, Mr. Hutchison, for dissatisfied airmen.

It is normal and right that these young men, and many of them, too, are anxious to get back to their homes, their families, wives and sweethearts; to their duty and the pleasant scene of their own land. It is unfair, because some of them are very positive about their desire to return home, to conclude that all, or even those British "airmen" have a "low opinion of Canada," as does Mr. Hutchison in his mournful column.

Finally, Mr. Hutchison, if you are desirous of contributing to the happiness of Royal Air Force airmen, please do not refer to them as "English." The Royal Air Force is composed as well of Scotch, Irish, Welsh, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand and South African nationals, all of whom are proud to be called British, but all of whom are quite annoyed to be referred to as "English"—just as you would be, Mr. Hutchison, were I to dub you an "American."

Army Promotions

Two Victorians were included in a list of 80 officers and other ranks in Canada's army overseas receiving promotions issued by national defence headquarters Sunday. Twenty captains were promoted to acting major, 60 lieutenants to acting captain and 20 noncommissioned officers were commissioned as lieutenants. The Victorians were E. H. Kerr, who becomes an acting major and J. M. Tierney who is elevated to commissioned rank.

Nazi Paper Scores Spanish Monarchists

BERNE (AP)—The German newspaper Frankfurter Zeitung published an editorial broadside Sunday against Gen. Francisco Franco's Spanish government, declaring it was "doing hardly anything decisive" to check talk of a monarchial restoration, and also was tolerating Allied attempts to bring Spain "into active co-operation with the western powers."

Spain is flooded with "the wildest rumors and promises," said the Madrid correspondent of the Nazi newspaper.

The Frankfurter Zeitung's reaction to the Spanish situation followed close on the disclosure that 28 Spanish monarchists had asked Franco to restore the throne to the late King Alfonso's son, Prince Juan.

Without disputing that a feeling exists that Spaniards are more pro-Allied today than ever before, the Nazi correspondent urged Spaniards to "examine their conscience and change their policy."

because they're made from Cooler-Burning Tobaccos

Many smokers confuse taste with strength. Actually the pleasant taste you find in a Buckingham comes from a blend of riper, more mature tobaccos and this satisfying taste can readily be distinguished from strength, as by proven test Buckingham is the mildest cigarette you can smoke.

Also important is the fact that the riper Virginia, Burley and Turkish leaves used in Buckingham are scientifically blended to produce a cooler-burning cigarette—a cigarette that is cooler on the throat.

Smoke a blended Buckingham and enjoy the taste that satisfies, a mildness that is truly Throat Easy.

'Y' Camp Thunderbird Ready for 75 Boys

Seventy-five Victoria boys will head for the Sooke Hills July 16, to spend two weeks hiking, swimming, studying woodcraft and participating in countless activities planned by leaders of the Y.M.C.A. Camp Thunderbird at Glanz Lake.

Registration lists have already begun to fill and the "Y" camp committee comprising Dr. J. M. Thomas, chairman; Grant M. Paterson, camp director; and Mrs. H. L. Simpson, "Y" co-educational secretary, have problems of transportation, supplies, rations and the securing of trained help for leaders and staff well in hand, it was announced from the "Y" today.

"There is a complete background of coast Indian tradition at Glanz Lake, the realization of the dream of F. V. Shoemaker, former boys' work secretary here," a "Y" spokesman declared. "The Indian legends and traditions have played a large part in Camp Thunderbird's history. Authentic Indian totems decorate the grounds and through campfire stories and woodcraft hobbies the campers are encouraged to study and appreciate the art and culture of the early coast natives."

This year a number of boys, sons of men in service, and others, who cannot afford a holiday are being sent to camp, by groups of interested business men and by service clubs, the spokesman said.

Camp dates are from July 16 to 30 and boys between the ages of 10 and 17 may register for one or two weeks. Registration should be in "Y" office by July 10.

PO VALLEY ROUTE TO EUROPE

By JOHN GROVER

THOSE who make terrain the No. 1 test of probable war movements are looking east, not west, from Italy in projecting what may come if and when the Allies invade.

West and north, Italy is ringed by the forbidding Alps. Invasion of France via the Alps would be tremendously costly in the view of the great majority of analysts. A push east from northern Italy is something else again. Success in such a smash, they argue, could come very close to smashing the Axis for keeps.

Such a thrust is predicated on first neutralizing the islands of Sicily, Sardinia and Corsica. Then the way to Italy proper would be open.

WHICH way to Italy? In the area from Genoa south to Pisa are multiple routes into the broad and hard-to-defend Po Valley, guarded only by coastal hills that do not exceed 2,000 feet along the natural routes of advance. Allied troops successfully stormed Tunisian djebels higher than these.

The Po Valley is a water level route that broadens as it proceeds eastward. At every step, the task of a manoeuvring invader would be easier.

A grand slam down the Po to the Adriatic would cut Italy off from the Axis. The supply problems would be no greater than mounting an offensive to hit the south of Italy, and an invasion in the south would be faced with a fight the length of Italy.

THE mountains on the Italo-Yugoslav border furnish the next natural obstacle. Relief maps show practicable routes where the terrain rises no more than 3,000 feet.

This mountain range is relatively narrow. Once through to Zagreb, an invading force would literally "spill" onto the plains and valleys of south central Europe.

To the north lies Budapest, athwart the Danube, lifeline of the Axis. Budapest is the heart of eastern Europe. It is 525 air-line miles from Genoa to Budapest. Distance is not an insuperable barrier once a beaten enemy is rolling backward.

INVASION this way would have many advantages:

First, the whole Balkan peninsula would virtually fall of its own weight, cut off from Germany.

Second, the route to Germany proper would be wide open, would have to be defended at whatever cost to any other front, opening the way to the Russians and the Allied forces in Britain.

Third, the Budapest invaders would be in the rear of Axis forces in Russia, square across their vital supply lines.

TOUGH as it is in spots, the Genoa-Po-Budapest route is the easiest terrain along any route to Axis vitals. It is as close as any route to oil supplies and munitions replacements. It gives a wider range of action, if successful, than any other single offensive possibility.

Seizure of the Po Valley would provide air platforms within 225-350 miles of the east and south German "safe" areas where Hitler is rushing his factories as fast as they can be moved. From them, bombs could be rained on the only Axis industrial areas now out of reach of normal operational bomb trips from England and Africa.

The area east through Italy's Po River Valley is one to be watched in considering invasion possibilities.

By PETE SALLAWAY

THOSE RACING enthusiasts who make a habit of burning the midnight oil in their study of the form charts will start the lamp burning Tuesday night as the following day the ponies will get away at Hastings Park. Looks like Vancouver and Victoria tracks are in for their best season in years. Last summer hit a new peak and with a greater volume of business reported at prairie and eastern tracks, where racing is already well in progress, the British Columbia plants are naturally anticipating a bigger play at the pari-mutuel wickets.

Reports have 450 horses stabled at Vancouver for the opening with another 50 expected to roll in before the season is many days old. When Winnipeg closes at the end of the first week in July the number will be swelled at an all-time record total. In keeping with the increase in horses will be the appearance of several new riders. Topping the list will be Charlie Ralls, Doug, Dodson and Jack Bailey. Ralls won the Long-acre Mile last year aboard Lavengro while Dodson copped the $10,000 stake in 1939 on Brief Moment. Dodson also boasts a $10,000 handicap victory at Santa Anita on Fairy Chant. Bailey has also an outstanding record, including a victory in the historic King's Plate on Bunty Lawless in 1938.

This Swedish runner Gunder Haegg is certainly attracting a lot of publicity since he arrived in the United States. Haegg caught the interest of the sports writers when he burst forth with an announcement he was anticipating retirement from the track owing to his having reached an age which he considered too advanced for tough track competition. Now the Swede draws some interesting comment from several noted U.S. track stars on his style and method of getting over the ground to set those world records.

Yarrows Beat V.M.D. In Golf Engagement

In the first of a series of matches, golfers from Yarrows defeated a team from the Victoria Machinery Depot, 18 to 6, at Colwood Sunday.

Scores, with the V.M.D. players first named, follow:

FOURBALLS
D. McMillan and T. Miller 2 R. Van Horne 0, D. Gilbride and D. McKenna 0, R. McNeill and J. Veitch 0, J. Bennett and W. Allen 0, A. D. Macey and H. Laneham 0.

Don Burnham, Dartmouth University's great 1,500 metre star, says: "Haegg had my tongue hanging out with his speed. I know how it feels to run two miles in 9.09, and at that speed Gunder would have run away from me. He is a wonderful runner."

"He runs with such a light-footed stride you hardly hear or feel his impact on the track, when running at his side, yet I could sense his tremendous surging power. He is completely relaxed without any sloppiness or looseness in action. He glides, has very little kickback with his legs. His breathing is flawless. There is never a pant."

"I thought Haegg was oblivious of my presence, but he reached over as we ran, tapped my shoulder and chest, and said: 'Too stiff.' I run with a certain upper-torso stiffness which my coach, Harry Hillman has been correcting. Gunder proved himself a keen student by noticing it so quickly."

Gregory Rice hoped that the cool, moist Swedish climate may have had something to do with Haegg's amazing times at from 1500 to 5000 metres.

"Weather conditions in Sweden are ideal for running, which perhaps is not the least reason that track is the country's national sport."

"The oxygen content is unusually high in Sweden. Glenn Cunningham, Gene Fenske and Archie San Romani tell me they felt less fatigue in their Stockholm races, finished fresher than they did at home."

San Romani, by the way, put the 2000-metre mark at 5:16.8 in Helsinki on a tour in 1937.

Haegg didn't bring along the Swedish climate, but the change did not exactly put a ball and chain on him, as he whipped Rye by 40 metres in that 5000-metre race to open his United States tour.

Falkenburg Winner In Five-Set Battle

SEATTLE (AP)—Bobby Falkenburg of Hollywood's famous tennis playing family, the United States No. 3 ranking junior, won the Seattle senior tennis championship Sunday, but he had one of the closest squeezes of his career in doing it.

Falkenburg defeated Jim Brink, Seattle high school student, 6-3, 2-6, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

In the fifth and deciding set, Falkenburg was down four games to five, and Brink, No. 6 ranking junior, had his opponent at match point on three occasions but could never bring the final needed pressure. Falkenburg finally won the tying game and ran out the set and match.

In the men's medal competition at the Uplands Golf Club, Sunday, J. McNeill was the winner with a net score of 63. L. Trimble was runner-up with a 65. Thirty-eight members took part.

Future Turf Champion?

As he calmly strolls along behind his mother in pasture we know this five-week-old colt, bred by Herb Vye, 1846 Kings Road, has no idea of the turf career that faces him in a couple of years. He is unaware of the hard training ahead, before facing the starter in his first out as a two-year-old. Dam of the colt is The Miss and his daddy was Royal Reigh, owned by Jack Diamond, well-known Vancouver racing enthusiast. The young fellow is from the same blood lines as the great Count Fleet, current racing sensation, as the sire of Royal Reigh and Count Fleet was Reigh Count, making them half brothers.

V.M.D., Navy Win Baseball

Lots of Hitting

Featured by the blasting of 25 hits, including a pair of home runs and six two-baggers, Victoria Machinery Depot edged out the Army, 10 to 8, Saturday night, to regain sole occupation of first place in the senior ball league. Played before over 1,500 fans, the first-place battle proved one of the heaviest hitting engagements of the season.

Defeat dropped the Army into a second-place tie with the Navy, the latter having chalked up a 4 to 2 triumph over the R.C.A.F. in the afternoon fixture. Army and Navy are a full game back of the shipbuilders.

Tonight's game will see the Navy in action again against the Eagles, starting at 6:30.

Base hits were a dime a dozen in the V.M.D.-Army game, with the result each call called on a pair of hurlers. Cy Shillito opened for the V.M.D., but, after giving up 10 hits and eight runs, was replaced in the fifth by Tommy Musgrave, who hurled hitless ball the remainder of the game.

Musgrave struck out six, Bill Prior, whose pitching duties with the Army have been mostly in relief roles, got the starting assignment but couldn't stand the pressure and left the game in the fourth after being nicked for eight hits and seven runs. His position was taken over by Jerry Whitney, who was charged with the defeat as the Army tied the score for him in the fourth. V.M.D. collected six hits and three runs during his trick on the mound.

Home runs were contributed by Doug Feden, Army first sacker and coach, and Prior. Two men were aboard the bases when Feden lifted the ball over the fence, while Prior's smash was good for two runs. Ian Lowe and Babe Work were the big stickers for the V.M.D., the former with four for five, including a pair of doubles, and Work with three for five. Third sacker Al Euerby hit in the pinches, poling out singles on two occasions to drive home a pair of runs.

BERRINGER WINS
Harley Berringer, general utility member of the Navy ball club, took a turn on the mound and set back the R.C.A.F. in the afternoon. Since the start of the season Berringer has pitched, caught and played the outfield. He gave up only four hits as his teammates got to Jerry Ray and Bert Appleby for 11 safeties.

Berringer was forced to leave the game in the ninth when the Flyers filled the bases and threatened to tie the score, being replaced by Jimmy Dumeah, who got out of trouble with only one run crossing the plate. Berringer struck out 10 and Dumeah one. During six and one-third innings on the mound Ray was charged with seven hits and the four runs. Appleby was found for only one hit.

Fielding highlight of the game was provided by Nerts Parent, clever shortstop of the Flyers. In the ninth inning he ran a mile to gather in a ground ball hit by Thompson and, after doing a complete somersault, threw out the runner at first by a whisker. He got a tremendous hand from the crowd.

Short scores follow:
R. H. E.
Navy.....2 4 3
R.C.A.F.....4 8 3
Batteries—Ray, Appleby and Switch; Berringer, Dumeah and Efrert.

Victorians Show Up Well in Army Golf in England

HERSHAM, Sussex (CP)—A Canadian reinforcement unit won the Canadian army officers' golf championship with the four-man team scoring 314 over the 18-hole Manning Heath course here Sunday.

An army troops quartette finished second among the nine teams competing.

Members of the winning team: Lieut. C. P. Rutherford, Victoria, 79; Lieut. J. C. McKinnon, Vancouver, 77; Canadian Legion Supervisor Dr. Radford, Edmonton, 77, and Lt.-Col. I. L. Ebbotson, Westmont, Que., 81.

Second placers with a total of 317 were: Capt. A. C. McWilliams, Calgary; Capt. J. Bagley, Victoria; Capt. B. Massie, Edmonton, and Lieut. A. M. Ross, Hamilton, Ont.

The lowest individual score was Capt. C. B. Bigelow, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, of Victoria, whose 71 was two over the amateur record for the course.

Playground Program Will Open Tonight

Victoria's supervised playground program will open tonight at 7:30 with a special event marking the start of the schedule at Central Park.

To create interest in the plan, the committee has arranged a short display of track activity by the Y.M.C.A. squad, a demonstration of tumbling and dancing by young Pro Rec groups, and selections by the Victoria Schools Band.

The program will be repeated Tuesday evening at Beacon Hill, and will mark the start of two months' activity to provide a healthy outlet for young Victorians now on vacation.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Boeing and St. Saviours battled to a 2 to 2 draw in a soccer match here Saturday before a crowd of 1,800, and there will be a replay for the Mainland Cup Tuesday night.

Boeing were much inferior to St. Saviours, who were yards faster on the ball and never let the airmen settle down.

R.A.F. Beats Visitors

R.A.F. cricket team marked up a close 166 to 161 victory over the all-star mainland eleven in an all-day match Sunday at Macdonald Park.

Winning the toss, the British airmen decided to bat and within two balls of the first over had lost Chapman with no runs on the board. A sparkling display by Hall and dogged batting by Cooks improved the situation, and lunch was taken with the score at 72 for three wickets.

Two quick wickets on resumption placed the visitors in a good position, but resourceful batting by Webb, R.A.F. skipper, altered the picture. The innings was closed at 3 when Blood was clean bowled by Bill Hendy.

Mainland opening pair settled down to steady cricket and at tea the score stood at 52 for one wicket. A brilliant knock by Hendy, who scored 49, was the feature of the mainland innings. Excitement was high when the score stood at 140 for eight wickets and only 14 runs were required when the last man went in to bat. With six runs left to win, the mainland innings was closed with an excellent catch by Cooke.

LEAGUE MATCHES
In Saturday's league fixtures, R.A.F. and the Navy came through with victories. British airmen defeated the Five C's, putting on 96 for five wickets in reply to the churchmen's 95, while the Navy nosed out the Albions by two runs, 60 to 58.

Griffin was the only C's batsman able to handle the R.A.F. bowling, putting on a smart 52. Symons was the only other player to reach double figures with 10. McPherson bowled dead for the R.A.F., taking three wickets for five in six overs. Hall was high bat for the Flyers with 24, closely followed by Davies with 23 and Sammes with 21 not out.

Navy-Albions match was featured by the bowling of Vale for the Navy, who gathered in eight wickets for 32 runs. Gooding trundled well for the Albions with three for one run. Machin led the Navy offensive with 20 runs, while Pritchard topped the Albions with 26.

150 Compete In Rowboat Derby

G. Bowers Wins Feature Prize; Fish Are Small

With 150 competitors, including 75 new members, the first rowboat derby of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association held Sunday at Saanich Arm, was a great success. G. Bowers took top honors with a salmon weighing eight and a half pounds. He was presented with a rod and reel.

Runnerup in the competition was H. Jackson with a fish weighing seven and a quarter pounds, which won an Indian sweater. J. R. Scaplan was third with a six and three-quarter pound fish and won a telescopic gaff. Bill Plater and W. Robertson each weighed in six-and-a-half-pound specimens and Plater won the toss for fourth prize. Sixth prize went to B. Peacock with a six-and-a-quarter pounder. Five fishermen weighed in salmon of five and a half pounds and in the draw W. Thomas and J. McLean took the seventh and eighth prizes. However, the other three, W. Hook, R. Taylor and Ian May, will be awarded prizes as the result of a decision made by the tackle committee headed by Alex Provan.

All prizes not picked up Sunday can be obtained at Wilson and Lenfesty, Government St.

Presentation of prizes took place at the McKenzie Bay float with President Hubert Lethaby extending the thanks of the association for the fine co-operation received from the sportsmen in promoting the derby. The rowboat competition had been an experiment and, in view of its success, another would be held in the near future, Lethaby stated.

"Doc" Smith, one of the oldest members of the association presented the prizes.

Cary, As Reporter, Wears Bow Tie

Cary Grant will be in line for a newspaperman's Oscar, or whatever it is that the gentlemen of the Fourth Estate might award an actor for presenting them as they really are on the screen.

As a reporter for a news syndicate in early-blink Europe in Leo McCarey's "Once Upon a Honeymoon," currently at the Atlas Theatre, Grant doesn't once resort to wrinkled clothes, cocked hats or incessant cigarettes in portraying a correspondent in this production for RKO Radio which co-stars Ginger Rogers. Cary's one concession to the reporting profession is the wearing of a bow tie in some of the scenes, because, he says, some of the finest newspapermen he knows wear them.

Yearns for Drama But Face Says No

Leonid Kinskey's soul yearns for drama; but his face is set against it. So, the tall thin, Russian actor seriously is considering a surgical overhaul of his features that, so to speak, will make his face fit his personality.

Kinskey, who plays a comedy bartender in Warner Bros. "Casablanca," now at the York Theatre, with Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman and Paul Henreid, doesn't crave to play Hamlet. He's more the Shylock type, and that, incidentally, is his one great ambition. But, most of all, he wants Hollywood directors and casting directors to take him seriously.

Baby Star Given Exclusive Billing

Only a baby could get away with it, but Billy Eugene Ferris, aged nine months, is to have his own exclusive star billing in his own special production in a Bette Davis-starring picture.

Baby Billy's starring production is a "home movie," shot with 16 millimeter film, and it will be flashed on the screen for scenes of Miss Davis' current Warner Bros. picture, "The Great Lie," opening at the Oak Bay Theatre today.

Billy plays the baby in the home of Miss Davis and George Brent in "The Great Lie," and that's how he happens to get his own picture within a picture.

Rochester Wears Last Zoot Suit

Rochester, one of more than 40 famous movie stars in Paramount's super-musical comedy, "Star Spangled Rhythm," which comes today to the Capitol Theatre, has the distinction of wearing in that picture what is probably the last zoot suit to appear in films for the duration. He wears one for the number he does with dancing star Katherine Dunham.

Annabella and John Sutton head the featured cast in 20th Century-Fox's thrilling romance "Tonight We Raid Calais," which comes tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre. Hailed by the critics as one of the great novels of the present generation, and No. 1 best-seller for many months, Eric Knight's "This Above All," brought to the screen by 20th Century-Fox, is showing at the Rio Theatre today. Co-starring Tyrone Power and Joan Fontaine, the film was produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, Academy Award producer, under the directorial aegis of Anatole Litvak. The screenplay was fashioned by R. C. Sheriff.

Sergeant's Created Hit Show Numbers

Program of "The Army Show," Canada's gay and colorful all-soldier show, gives a cryptic idea of the talents of two husky young sergeants who not only star in the production, but likewise created a generous portion of it. They're Johnny Wayne, 24, and

Frank Shuster, 26; minstrels, comics, drama writers, musicians, athletes, tunesmiths, and—even more important—soldiers. You'll see their names listed in "The Army Show" program as performers and writers of several of the hit numbers, including "Fernando the Commando," "South America," "But That's All," "On Behalf of the General Staff" and "That's an Order From the Army."

Story of their collaboration goes back to public school days when they wrote their first show together, and since then they have cut a wide and frequently hilarious path through the jungles of showmanship behind the microphone and footlights. Unlike most comedians and radio writers, they have no secret for a teamwork that has produced some of the brightest radio and stage material. "I work well with Frank because I smoke so much," Johnny explains. "He always has matches."

Both Toronto-born, Shuster and Wayne organized school dramatics, made $40 for their boy scout troop with a variety review they produced when at University of Toronto. Both acquired their B.A. degrees and were taking post-graduate work in English when they gave up their college work to enter the army. A large cast appears in "The Army Show," which is under the general management of Major Victor George. Canada's "Army Show" comes to the Royal Victoria Theatre June 29 and 30.

grounds of St. Ann's. Taking part were novices and sisters of the academy, sisters of St. Joseph's Hospital, Mount St. Mary and St. Mary's Priory. A large number of parishioners also participated, the boys' choir and the sisters providing the singing. Msgr. ## 1,000 Persons Saw Annual Rose Show

Victoria Horticultural Society's most successful show in 20 years closed at the Crystal Garden, Saturday night, after having been viewed by more than 1,000 persons, including a large number of out-of-town visitors.

"It has been one of the most successful and best-patronized shows we have had for years—it has been wonderful," said H. O. Simpson, president of the society.

Three special prizes were awarded, to Mrs. J. U. Kimmitt, 822 Newport Avenue, a complete chicken dinner; Mrs. H. Murray, 915 McClure Street, a box of candy; Mrs. G. F. Carey, 1693 Chandler Avenue, preserved cherries.

Len Holyoak exhibited a new rose, Lady Mandeville, and it was pronounced the best rose brought out since 1937.

Schoolchildren took part in the show, and their joint exhibit was exceptionally good. Central Junior High display, arranged by Miss Maxine Simpson, took first prize. Second place went to South Park exhibit, arranged by Miss Pat Balma.

Oak Bay Challenge Trophy was won by Geo. Nunn, with an entry of 12 distinct roses. Mr. Nunn also won three other first prizes for entries shown in boxes. Beautiful Earl Haig blooms predominated in the non-competitive exhibit arranged by Mr. Simpson.

It was announced a special competition of the society will be held in October, as part of the celebration of Victoria's 100th birthday. Vegetables will be featured and entries will be received by the secretary, Ald. D. D. McTavish, at 607 Fort Street.

A home cooking stall was a feature of the show, under direction of Mrs. J. W. Loudon. The sum of $59.50 was realized by raffles.

Mr. Simpson thanked merchants for advertising the show in their regular newspaper advertising space.

TOWN TOPICS

Roy William Lindley, charged with driving to the common danger Saturday on the Gorge Road, was fined $50, with suspension of his driver's license for three months.

Victoria shippers will work as usual July 1. The July holiday will be observed July 5 when all the shippers will cease work as agreed upon both here and in Vancouver.

Mr. Justice Robertson, in Supreme Court Friday, reserved judgment on the action of Mary Forbes Conyers, guardian of the infant Leon U. Conyers, against the executors of the Margaret Orr estate covering ownership of the home of the deceased Margaret Orr, notwithstanding the fact she had executed a conveyance of the home of the husband, William Orr. The conveyance was not registered in her lifetime. Defendants are William Orr and Jean Skelton, executors of Margaret Orr's will.

Expensive Pianos Lost in Store Fire

Pianos, virtually irreplaceable under existing war conditions, as well as furniture and lights, were destroyed in a fire Saturday evening which swept through the third floor of Fletcher Bros. (Victoria) Ltd.

No estimate was available of the value of goods destroyed, but both the well-appointed showroom itself and the merchandise were extensively damaged. The loss was reported covered by insurance.

Excellent work by the Victoria Fire Department, which cut the loss to a minimum after the alarm had been turned in at 7.30 in the evening, coupled with the reinforced concrete construction, prevented the blaze from spreading to lower floors.

Presumably starting in a chestfield after the store closed at 5:30, the fire had gained a firm hold on furniture and walls adjacent to the entrance before the alarm was turned in. Three pumps, the city service truck and the aerial ladder were rushed to the scene. Firemen, held back by smoke and heat at the entry, broke a front window and used a minimum of water to bring the blaze under control.

Heat brought down plaster from the ceiling and walls, cracked mirrors and glass partitions and blistered highly polished surfaces on furniture.

Pianos, destroyed were of Heintzman and Nordheimer manufacture. The last fire truck left the scene at 11.30.

The blaze was the most costly of several which kept the department busy Saturday.

Grass fires were reported earlier in the day in the 700 block, Market Street, and at the old brickyard, Douglas Street. Two chimney fires, one at 1019 Southgate and the other at 1635 Pembroke, were extinguished and the popcorn wagon at the corner of Yates and Government burned during the day.

Sawmill Industry To Pay Overtime

Overtime pay for sawmill industry workers will go into effect July 5, Adam Bell, deputy minister of labor and chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations said today, following collaboration between this board and the Regional War Labor Board.

The new order provides time and a half of the regular pay rate for sawmill workers after eight hours of work in any one day or 48 hours in any one week.

To fit in with the established practice of short periods of necessary preparatory work, the overtime rate in the case of stationary engineers, pumpmen, operating millwrights, firemen, turbine operators and others will commence after a nine-hour day or a 50-hour week, Mr. Bell explained. Overtime rates do not apply in the case of persons holding managerial positions, cooks and bunkhouse employees, watchmen, caretakers and stock-keepers.

First aid attendants and employees in the transportation industry working in sawmills are not covered by the new ruling, because previous orders pertaining specifically to these occupations deal with overtime payment.

"A series of conferences between the government boards, employers and union representatives has clearly shown that employers in the sawmill industry support the principle of extra payment for overtime, and the board's order has been devised to apply that principle in keeping with conditions peculiar to the industry and with the utmost advantage to the workers," Mr. Bell said.

Further conferences and study of the new rates will apply only west of the Cascade Mountains.

Limited Tax Urged On Overtime Pay

The Vancouver Island Joint Labor Conference, meeting Sunday evening, unanimously endorsed a resolution asking federal authorities to limit to a maximum of 10 per cent, taxation on overtime pay in local war industries. The action, it was believed, would assist materially in curbing absenteeism in Victoria plants.

Charles Chivers raised the issue and presented the resolution, which will be forwarded to Ottawa and all advisory boards on Selective Service in Canada for support.

The present overtime taxation, system, Mr. Chivers said, was a material factor in causing absenteeism.

Discussing the shipyard issue, Mr. Chivers asked if all available and suitable local high school and college youths were securing employment. He felt outside help of a similar nature should not be sent to farms instead of receiving shipyard jobs.

Reviewing the housing shortage, Mr. Chivers suggested power be sought for a local construction controller to authorize conversions up to $2,000 without reference to Ottawa if such conversions would increase dwelling accommodation here.

NEED WOOD OFFICER

Appointment by the city of a special officer to handle applications sent in by citizens for group self-help wood-cutting operations was recommended by C. W. Marshall, chairman of the conference's fuel committee. The situation was virtually impossible to handle under the existing set-up owing to the volume of applications being made, Mr. Marshall said.

Delegates were asked to report to the conference committee any instances in which regulation price for fuel were exceeded.

Letters of thanks were ordered sent to Hon. H. Anscomb and C. D. Orchard, chief forester, for their assistance in making tracts available and accessible for wood cutting under the plan.

The conference decided to wait another two weeks before applying to Ottawa for an order covering general transfers on the city transportation systems. At present, the conference learned, the Blue Line is providing transportation for residents on the Haultain route to the No. 3 street car line free of charge to shipyard workers who present their shipyard badges. A vote of thanks for the service was tendered H. L. Sangster.

Further study was given the proposal to establish safety zones on city and district transportation lines. No action was taken on the plan to have parallel parking established on Douglas Street, but the question will be revived at the conference's next meeting.

FOOD INDUSTRY PROTECTED

In a letter from C. F. Needham, associate director of Selective Service, Ottawa, the council was informed authorities will not disrupt the food industry by transferring necessary men into other businesses, but that men staying in the food jobs under permit so issued, must remain at that employment unless otherwise directed.

Better distribution of sugar is sought in another resolution to federal authorities endorsed by the meeting.

Some dissatisfaction was voiced in discussion of Workmen's Compensation Act matters over a sign displayed in a local shipyard warning workers they would be declined compensation for head injuries if hurt when working without special helmets which the workers are required to buy for themselves. The conference held the helmets should be provided employees without cost.

A letter was ordered sent to Prime Minister King Criticizing Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Minister of Labor.

Deputy Ministers Lunch At Government House

Deputy ministers of all government departments went to Government House today for their annual luncheon with lieutenant-Governor Woodward.

Guests were P. de Walker, deputy provincial secretary; Harry Cathcart, L.S.O., deputy minister of lands; Neville Wright, deputy minister of finance; Dr. J. F. Walker, deputy minister of mines; Arthur Dixon, deputy minister of public works; Maj. J. M. Stewart, deputy minister of railways; A. W. Bridgman, deputy minister of municipal affairs; E. G. Rowbottom, deputy minister of trade and industry; Adam Bell, deputy minister of labor; B.C. Police Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons, O.B.E.

J. B. Munro, deputy minister of agriculture, and Dr. S. J. Willis, deputy minister of education, are out of town on business for their departments.

Brig. Foster Due Here To See Premier Hart

Brig. W. W. Foster, recently appointed special commissioner for defence project in northwest Canada, with headquarters in Edmonton, will come to Victoria tomorrow to confer with Premier John Hart on problems of mutual interest to the B.C. government and military authorities.

In Vancouver today Brig. Foster conferred with Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., G.O.C.-in-Chief, Pacific Command.

Famous Orchestras Play His Symphony

CAPT. ROBERT FARNON

One of the most important musical announcements to be made in Canada, for some time, is that Capt. Robert Farnon's second symphony, "The Ottawa Symphony," is to be played this fall by the famous Philadelphia and National symphony orchestras.

Sir Ernest MacMillan was one of the first noted conductors to give Farnon a hearing. Under Sir Ernest's conductorship, Farnon's first symphony, Symphonic Suite for orchestra in D flat major, was played twice by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra in 1941. His symphony No. 2 in B major, received its premiere in Toronto, under Sir Ernest's direction in April this year.

Former dispenser of light-hearted nonsense with CBC's famed Happy Gang broadcasts, Capt. Robert Farnon, musician-composer-comedian, arrived in Victoria with the Army Show today.

Capt. Farnon is musical director and arranger for the show. Three of his own compositions are highlights, "Hiya Mom," "Bolero" and "Dream Waltz." Captain Farnon collaborated with Sgt. Frank Shuster and Johnny Wayne on most of the other all-original music of the show.

Versatility has become a byword in describing this brilliant young composer-musician's talents. His flair for buffoonery is, perhaps, best known to his large radio public, but his musicianship is gaining him a foremost place among contemporary composers. As a serious composer, his abilities are becoming known in the United States as well as Canada.

Victoria's Quota Set at $15,750

By E. R. M. One hundred and seventy-five depth charges from Victoria. That is the quota for the five-week campaign to "Stamp Out the U-boat" starting today. Each stamp bought this month will go directly into purchasing the navy's deadly "ash cans" used to destroy German submarines.

Across the Dominion the fighting slogan "Stamp Out the U-boat" is ringing. The national objective is $1,350,000, which will boost Canada's supply of death-dealing depth charges by 15,000. Victorians are asked to contribute $15,750 of this.

Two real depth charges are on display in the downtown area today. Help buy one of these, each worth $90, and you will be handing Nazi U-boat commanders a one-way ticket to Davey Jones' locker!

It is officially stated that one well-placed T.N.T.-packed depth charge will destroy or seriously cripple a $2,000,000 enemy submarine and its crew. Do your share to beat the Axis by "Stamping Out the U-boat!"

Electrical Workers and their friends held a successful dance in the Foresters' Hall Friday evening. Although a large number of the members were unable to be present owing to shift work, a good orchestra and refreshments ensured a pleasant evening for those taking part. Dancing was from 9 till 1. Friday, feminine members of Yarrows Electrical Department will be hostesses to their male co-workers at a dance in the Crystal Garden; admission by invitation.

Increase in Courses, Staff and Students At Summer School

The Provincial Summer School sponsored by the B.C. Department of Education will open June 30 with approximately 700 applicants for this year's increased curriculum. Dr. C. B. Conway, director, states enrolment is much higher than this time last year, one of the reasons being the recent abolition of fees for B.C. teachers.

The department of education plans to refund transportation costs to those traveling from the more remote parts of the province. These inducements, plus the usual educational and cultural incentives of excellent instruction in a variety of subjects, musical programs and social contacts with fellow teachers, has necessitated extra courses and in some cases double classes for the same subject to care for the overflow.

The Summer School will follow its usual custom of having a Vancouver section as well as Victoria. History and philosophy of education, psychology, individual development and guidance, organization and administration, graphic and practical arts, primary education, social studies, English, school physical education and extensive musical courses comprise the Victoria classes.

Creative music, intermediate harmony and counterpoint, and musical form will be taught by Mrs. Irene Bostwick, assistant professor of music for the University of Washington.

Another lecturer from an American University will be Dr. Reuben Law, professor of elementary education and chairman of that department at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. He will impart to the students a knowledge of principles and technique of elementary education and integrative teaching in junior grades.

EDUCATIONAL DANCE

Head of the educational dance department of the Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon, Miss Betty Lynd Thompson, will take the physical education courses in anatomy and physiology, primary rhythmic, folk dancing and technique of the modern dance. Miss Thompson is author of the textbook on fundamental rhythm used in B.C. schools.

Miss Lucile Wall of Compton, Calif., will conduct classes in methods of primary teaching. Other members of the faculty will include: From Victoria, Miss Marian James, Miss Barbara Flinton, Miss Marion Shaffer, Miss Muriel Johnson and Harold Johns, from Vancouver, Miss Winnett Copeland, Prof. John M. Ewing, Miss Effie Johnston, Burton Keith, Walter Lenning, Ernest Lee, Miss Grace Melvin, Miss Jessie Parkes, Miss Miriam Peck, Miss Geraldine Whittaker, and Norman Sangster; from Rossland, Kenneth Woodward.

J. Burns President Of B.C. Credit Union

Election of officers and proposed establishment of a central credit union for the province were main items on the agenda as the B.C. Credit Union League two-day convention closed Saturday.

A. L. Nicholas, retiring president, was in the chair for the afternoon business session which was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

At night a banquet attended by 150 delegates and guests was held at Terry's, presided over by Thomas Switzer, deputy inspector of credit unions. After dinner speeches were given by E. D. Dodd, field representative from Washington; Mrs. R. Thomas, Mutual Credit Association, Oregon, and Clifford Skorstad of Minneapolis.

Guests included Ald. P. E. George, representing Mayor Andrew McGavin; Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. G. Baker, and Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, M.L.A.

Retiring president A. L. Nicholas was presented with a gold watch by C. F. Banfield, King's Printer, who expressed the appreciation of the league. The two senior officers of the league for 1943-44 will be held by Vancouver representatives, John Burns was elected president, and Gordon Butcher, first vice-president; R. F. Williams of Victoria, second vice-president, and Roy Turton, treasurer. H. G. Pocock was returned as secretary.

Members of the incoming board to serve for three years are V. H. Humphrey, Victoria; Mrs. M. Cotton, Roberts Creek; and L. L. Wilson, L. Morrison, Miss M. Dougherty, Gordon Butcher and T. C. Dearlove, all of Vancouver.

A color film titled "The Story of Blood Plasma" will be shown at 8 Wednesday night in Ward School for the benefit of first-aid men and women in the A.R.P., St. John Ambulance and Red Cross Corps.

Chas. Ross Remembered

Century Dead Pioneer Honored At Ceremony

Surrounded by the hoary tombstones of Vancouver Island's pioneers, City of Victoria and British Columbia Historical Society Sunday afternoon paid tribute to Chas. Ross, first commander of Fort Victoria and known in local historical circles as "the forgotten man."

Descendants of men and women who personally knew Ross a century ago gathered beneath the towering trees of Pioneer Square, for long known as "the old cemetery," and heard from B. C. McKelvie, president of the Historical Society, something of the life of the man sent here in 1843 by Governor James Douglas and who died the next year.

Frank Ross, grandson of the commander, unveiled a stone in memory of Charles Ross, while the latter's great-great-grandchildren looked on. The ceremony was one of the features of the program of Victoria's 100th birthday.

Mr. McKelvie spoke of the pioneers who rest in the old cemetery. He pointed out the grave of Murray Yale and those of Chief-Factor John Work, Capt. Chas. Dodd, commander of the historic Beaver; David Cameron, first Chief Justice of the Crown Colony of Vancouver Island, and Dr. J. S. Helmcken, son-in-law of Douglas.
"There are scores of others who had a part in the building of Victoria buried here—verily a good company," Mr. McKelvie said. "They served Victoria well—but how has Victoria served them? Look at the headstones—broken and weathered, with inscriptions hardly decipherable. I trust that we are inaugurating a new spirit of appreciation for those who have played their parts in the making of this city and have passed on, and who today sleep in this hallowed acre."

PRINCE GEORGE TRIBUTE

A telegram was read from Mayor A. M. Patterson of Prince George, who said "residents of Prince George district this day join with citizens of Victoria in paying tribute to Charles Ross, who contributed much to the early settlement of Vancouver Island and previously to the tiny lights of civilization in the wilds of New Caledonia. Some years prior to going to Fort Victoria, Charles Ross was clerk in charge of Fort George on the Fraser River, forerunner of the modern city of Prince George."

"Fort George was a place of some importance at the time—and of considerable danger, for five years before the Indians had wiped out the personnel of the post—but Ross showed a real leadership at Fort George, just as he did at Fort Victoria, and both centres have thrived. Records show that Charles Ross served the Hudson's Bay Company well and in doing so laid solid foundation for the British Columbia of today. It is fitting that we keep his memory green."

Alderman D. D. McTavish was chairman. Invocation was pronounced by Rev. J. W. L. McLean of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and Piper Donald McLean played a lament in honor of Ross, who was born in Scotland.

Devil Diver Wins Brooklyn Handicap

NEW YORK (AP)—The "wrong horse," from Mrs. Payne Whitney's barn did it again Saturday.

Devil Diver, so lightly regarded alongside stablemate Shut Out that Jockey George Woolf ignored him, won the fifty-fifth running of the Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct Saturday, while Shut Out was shut out of the money. The purse was $30,000 added.

Of course, it didn't make much difference to the 23,150 customers at closing day of the Brooklyn racing plant's meeting because the two Whitney horses were hooked up as an entry, and no matter which you liked, you got back $3.90 for each $2 investment. Market Wise ran second and Don Bingo third.

'Mrs. Holliday' Held at Plaza

Deanna Durbin's picture "The Amazing Mrs. Holliday," is held over at the Plaza Theatre. The new Universal film Deanna's 11th in her series of successes dating from "Three Smart Girls," is said to reveal the star as an outstanding dramatic actress as well as the most popular songstress of the cinema.

The story is one of timely interest and importance. Action, for the most part, takes place in the glamorous society circles of San Francisco while many exciting sequences are devoted to the perilous aftermath following Japanese encroachments in the Orient.

Ambulance Workers Parade to Church

Two hundred members of St. John Ambulance Brigade, including nurses, first aid men, stretcher bearers, ambulance men and boy cadets, fell in Sunday morning in front of the Parliament Buildings for the annual church parade.

Mustering in the brilliant sunlight, the brigade marched to Christ Church Cathedral, led by the Royal Canadian Navy Band. Dean Spencer Elliott took as his text the story of the man sick of the palsy brought to Christ by four stretcher-bearers, symbolizing the work done by those in St. John Ambulance Brigade. Inspection was held after the service, in the grounds of the Provincial Police, when the brigade was reviewed by J. Fyfe-Smith, provincial commissioner; G. H. Stevens, district officer, and H. W. Edwardson, honorary secretary.

Other officers in the parade included: Dr. G. Hall and Mrs. Hall; corps surgeon, Dr. T. W. A. Gray and Mrs. Gray; No. 61, division surgeon, Capt. W. W. Bell; Denton Holmes, division surgeon; Dr. V. ### Best Seller Victor, Whirlaway Fifth second and Some Chance third. Whirlaway, 6 to 5 favorite making his second start of the season, finished fifth, in a field of 12. It was a repeat performance for Best Seller, which won the same race a year ago. Whirlaway, all-time leading money winner, never was a factor. Best Seller ran the mile in 1:37 and returned $38.20, $13.60 and $10.60 across the board. The price on Thumbs Up was $7.90 with $5.40 to show. ## Dorothy Dix:

CHICAGO (AP)—Best Seller, at odds of 18 to 1, galloped to an upset victory in the $10,000 added Equipoise Mile at Washington Park Saturday, with Thumbs Up Corps, commandant, Miss Helen Butterfield.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband is kind, affectionate and generous to our child and me. Everybody likes him because he is so good-natured and never says anything mean to anyone. I am a good wife, but I have a high temper and often say things to him I shouldn't, and as the result occasionally he gives me a beating. I know I do wrong and aggravate him past endurance, but still I think he could punish me in some other way, don't you?

Good homes are good homes. A kind, generous husband is hard to get, and losing them seems a pretty high price to pay for the pleasure of indulging in an orgy of passion.

And, of course, you have a third choice. You can use self-control and behave yourself.

Dear Miss Dix: My son is in foreign service. Just before he left he married a girl of whom we knew very little. She is running around with a married man who has two children. They make no secret of their affair and it is a scandal of the community. Should we write our son about this?

A MOTHER.

Answer: I think so. A woman must be lost to every principle of honor and decency if she will betray a husband who is away fighting to protect her and all other women, and drag his name in the dust.

THWART TEMPER TO END HUSBAND'S BEATINGS

Answer: Well, I certainly don't advocate wife-beating. Traditionally no gentleman should raise his hand against a woman, no matter how much she needs it, but you must admit that a wife who is a tantrum-thrower should have something done to her that will make her put a brake on her temper and her tongue.

The question is what, so think it over and try to decide which you would rather take, a thrashing now and then when you have made yourself unendurable by the way you reviled and insulted your husband, or have him divorce you.

JOHANNESBURG (CP) — A South African army doctor discovered an "efficient, cheap and simple" method of making plaster of paris casts for any type of surgical work. They cost one-fifth the price of the old types.

Camp Week-end Planned By 'Y' So-Ed Group

So-Ed Committee of the Y.M.C.A. will hold a camp week-end July 3 and 4, at Camp Thunderbird, Glintz Lake, when J. E. Maxwell of the northwest area Y.M.C.A., Seattle, Washington, will be guest leader.

A recreational and educational program has been arranged and built round the camp theme: "Hit on all three for self and society." "Y" officials said today.

Alma Malcolm, So-Ed chairman, will be camp director. Registrations are now being taken at the Y.M.C.A. and those wishing to attend may make inquiries at the desk. Helen Simpson, co-educational secretary, and Archie Morrison, boys' work secretary, will act as staff leaders for the week-end.

Costa Rica's Metals Are Less Important Than Bananas and Coffee

Close to the republic of Panama—in fact, on its northern border—is another small republic known as Costa Rica. Like most of the other countries in Central America, it stretches from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Stretching from one ocean to another does not mean a great deal in Central America. One part of Costa Rica is only 75 miles across, and the greatest distance from salt water to salt water is 160 miles.

On the eastern side of Costa Rica is the arm of the Atlantic Ocean, known as the Caribbean Sea. That sea was an important highway for the Spaniards who reached the New World in early days.

Costa Rica Indian chief with his home in background. His wife is grinding grain with a round stone.

The first white men to see the coast of Costa Rica are believed to have been Columbus and his sailors. Their discovery took place in 1502, during the last voyage of Columbus.

Columbus found that the natives wore earrings and other ornaments made of gold. This is believed to explain the name of the republic which, in English, means "oast of riches."

There are gold and silver mines in Costa Rica to this day, but they are not nearly so important as products of the soil. The bananas and coffee raised there have a value about 50 times as great as the gold and silver mined each year.

Speaking of the gold and silver in Costa Rica, we may note that the little country owns Cocos Island. This famous island is in the Pacific Ocean, about 400 miles from the Costa Rican shore.

Legend says that Cocos is the home of buried treasure worth many millions of dollars. The treasure is supposed to include statues of saints made of solid gold.

Treasure hunters have gone to the island, but they have looked in vain for the gold and other riches. They have lost the money spent on their expeditions. They have suffered from hunger and accidents—and have come back with empty hands.

Among the Costa Ricans who care little or nothing about hunting for the treasure are the Indians. There are only a few thousand Indians in the country, but they love their homeland and seldom cross its borders.

Some of the Indians build homes of a queer shape. The dwellings look like small pyramids, and may be said to be "all roof."

Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below.

1. In a city where distances are great is it all right for a young woman to meet her dinner partner in the lobby of a hotel, instead of having him call for her at her home?

2. Should those who go out to smoke between acts of a play be sure to get back in their places before the curtain goes up?

3. Is it necessary to say, "I'm sorry," when you walk in front of others as you go to take a seat in a theatre?

4. Should you stand to let late comers in a theatre past you?

5. If you talk for a while to the person sitting next to you on a train, is it necessary to introduce yourself?

What would you do if—

Sandwich Secrets

Sandwiches should be good eating and good health builders

Preparing sandwiches for the lunch box—school child's or war worker's—needs consideration. Long hours in a warm locker or cupboard take their toll of freshness.

Bread for sandwiches, of course, must be at least 24 hours old. Too-fresh bread gets soggy. Always use Canada Approved bread, brown or white.

Butter should be creamed and spread to the edge of the bread. This helps keep the sandwiches moist.

At least one sandwich in the lunch box should be made with meat, fish, poultry, egg or cheese. And remember that several thin slices of meat make a better tasting and easier-eating sandwich than one thick slice.

Cold roasts, (beef, lamb, veal or pork) sliced thin, all make attractive sandwiches, especially when combined with savoury spreads (see panel). For variety, grind or chop leftover meats and mix with relish or dressing.

Table-ready meats are a wonderful stand-by when there is no home-cooked cold meat available. If meat is scarce, try stretching it with hard-cooked chopped egg.

Meat and egg sandwiches, of course, supply only two out of the five protective foods. Try to include vegetables, milk and fruit in each lunch box as well.

SANDWICH SPREADS

Add ingredients in each case to ¼ cup softened butter.

1. MUSTARD BUTTER
Use prepared mustard to taste

2. CHILI BUTTER
Use 2 tbs. chili sauce

3. ONION BUTTER
Use 1 tsp. finely minced onion or chive

4. PARSLEY BUTTER
Use 2 tbs. minced parsley, 1 tsp. lemon juice

For wartime house-keeping you need Martha Logan's new meat cookbook, "Meat Complete." Send 10c to Swift Canadian Co. Ltd., Dept. NK24, New Westminster.

BUSINESS enriches the NATION and YOU

Profit Creates Prosperity

PROSPERITY, for any country, for any enterprise, is conditioned upon profit... and profit rests upon the solid foundation of honourable service.

Any given business continues to operate profitably only so long as it continues to fill a public want at prices the public is willing to pay. Any given country and its people prosper only when individual enterprise profits.

For the profitable enterprise employs more people continuously; pays better wages for skilled craftsmanship; raises the volume and the quality of its production; broadens its distribution; lowers its prices; enhances the values it offers to all. Its profits add prosperity to the nation as a whole.

Let us recognize the vital contribution profit makes, as the driving, motivating force that keeps the wheels of industry a-whirl, producing ever better merchandise at prices within the reach of ever more people.

A.R.P. WORKERS WELL TRAINED

"You know, I'm mighty glad I joined the A.R.P.," remarked a friend of your J-M Reporter the other day. "You see, the training we get through our local Civilian Defence Committee is valuable to any man or woman, especially in wartime. For instance, we know how to extinguish fires, how to render first aid, and how to repair a communication and transportation lines. Just recently we heard an interesting talk from a Britisher who had been through the blitz in London. And these committee meetings help you to get better acquainted with your neighbors in a friendly community spirit. I don't say that Canada ever will be attacked but it's much better to be safe than sorry, isn't it?"

Most of us will agree that the A.R.P. is doing a fine job and that it presents an opportunity for real service on the home front.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

Summertime table topics featuring salads and desserts

Appetites are likely to lag a bit during the summer months if the homemaker doesn't employ a bit of strategy by serving cooling foods. There's no better way to lower the temperature at the table than to serve crisp, fresh salads, and refreshing desserts. Such offerings do wonders in stepping up tired appetites.

CARROT SUNDRIE SALAD—Blend together equal portions of ground raw carrots and creamy cottage cheese. Mix in sliced strawberries or whole raspberries. A few go a long way. Mold on shredded salad greens and with your favorite dressing. It awakens the laziest appetites.

TOMATO CUPS—Slice off stem ends and scoop out pulp of medium-sized tomatoes. Mix pulp with ground cabbage, add a few drops of lemon juice if desired and salt and pepper to taste. Refill cups, chill and serve as an accompaniment to the main course. It's a peppy salad that perks up commonplace meals.

CANTALOUPE-WALDORF SALAD—Chill cantaloupes or other melons, cut in halves or quarters and remove seeds. Refill with a mixture of chopped apples, raisins and nut blended with salad dressing of your choice. If served at the end of the meal, this delicious salad takes the place of dessert.

SPINACH SLAW—Cut washed spinach into shreds, add 1/2 teaspoon grated onion and toss with a tart salad dressing. Garnish with fresh tomato wedges.

RHUBARB CRUMB PUDDING—Combine equal parts of sweetened rhubarb sauce and stale bread, cake or cookie crumbs. Turn into sherbet dishes and chill until crumbs absorb the juice from the rhubarb. When ready to serve, top with a fluff of beaten egg white sweetened with honey. It is delightfully refreshing.

MIXED FRUIT WITH CUSTARD SAUCE—Mix fresh berries, sliced peaches, plums or any other fruits in season. Arrange in sherbet glasses and cover with custard sauce. Chill and serve.
